

Distribution of Outside CommunicationsA. To the Community

Students should not be used as a means of distributing notices or communications to parents not originating within the schools or of an official school nature with the exception of communications to parents from patron organizations affiliated with the school or when, in the judgment of the superintendent, such communications are of a significant educational value.

B. In the Schools

The board discourages the announcing of nonschool-related events in the schools. In accordance with procedures established by the superintendent, announcements or notices that have significant educational value or widespread community importance may be distributed at the discretion of the principal.

C. Use of School Mail (Courier) Services

The use of the interschool mail distribution service shall be limited to school business and, with the approval of the superintendent, communications by parent-teacher organizations or other school-related organizations.

Editor's Note

See also division regulation #R 2-13

Adopted by School Board: March 24, 1987